

MDGS Board of Directors Election

@ Spring Goat Day

March 13, 2010

12:00 Noon

As you all know, Michigan will be hosting the 2011 ADGA National Convention, in Grand Rapids, Michigan.

There are currently four (4) positions open to be voted on by you, them members of MDGS, at the Annual Spring Goat Day Meeting, March 13th, at Michigan State University (MSU). The people that you elect this year will be part of the Board that will be in charge of your money and your organization, when this convention comes to Michigan.

Lets elect doers - NOT talkers

The following three (3) people that would like to represent you on this Board, are:

#1. Leslie Gosnell

~ Leslie has been on the MDGS Board since May 2009, when she was appointed to fill a vacancy. She has been involved with goats for many years, along with her daughters, and is a very enthusiastic person who wants to work on the convention. She is excellent with the youth, and is on the current MDGS Youth Representative Committee.

#2. Heather Schroeder

~ Heather has been the Assistant Superintendent of Goats @ the Michigan State Fair for several years. She is a past-president of the Michigan Boer Goat Association, and works with 4H Youth in Ingham County. She is energetic and people friendly, and will bring some new blood to the organization.

#3. Pat White

~ Pat has been both Treasurer and Secretary for the Michigan Dairy Goat Society, and was a co-editor of the GoatNews Newsletter. She works on the MDGS Youth Representative Committee, as well as serving as secretary at many of the goat shows.

All of the above, are people friendly, and will give you, the MDGS Members, their time and effort to promote and potect the Michigan Dary Goat Society, its members, and its organization.

Be sure to attend and cast your vote!
